

A Peek at Next Week

Mrs. Kinzer & Ms. Sultan

Week of February 12, 2018

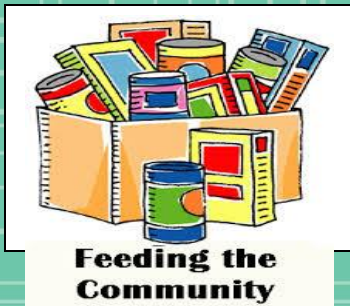

We will not be having a Valentine's party. We will be exchanging Valentine's with each other. You do not need to send in a box for this. We will be making bags in the classroom. You will find a class list in the Friday folder.

Please contact me if you would like to send in a "special snack" on this day.

This Week's Focus

Math - We are continuing our study of fractions. This week we will add and subtract mixed numbers and multiply fractions using various strategies.

Science - We will wrap up our study of the solar system with a test on Thursday. A study guide will go home on Monday. Our next section in our space unit is learning about stars and star patterns.

Reading- We are reading the historical novel, "George Washington's Socks." There will be a comprehension & vocabulary test on Friday. Vocabulary words: array, suppress, desperate, arsenal, rebel, bayonet, defeat, muster & abnormal

Grammar- We will be learning about linking verbs.

Writing- We are practicing opinion writing.

Social Studies- We will finish up our discussion about the Preamble of the Declaration of Independence, the First Amendment Rights of the Constitution, and checks and balances in our government. Our next unit is Westward Expansion.

Reminder

There are a lot of sicknesses going around. Please make sure that your child is 24 hour fever and medicine free before sending him/her back to school. Also, make sure it has been 24 hours before they have thrown up or had diarrhea before sending him/her back to school.
